masters' level counseling interns. Through a county funded grant, Wellspring provides a trauma resolution program called Bounce! to youth who experienced traumatic events and exhibited Post Traumatic Stress Disorder symptoms. Wellspring received a foundation grant for Bounce! youth participants for follow up counseling. Wellspring's standard rates for counseling are below customary fees. Wellspring provides access to counseling for clients with financial needs through Financial Aid and solicited financial support through fundraising events and community-based organization grants. Clients who are able to pay for counseling through insurance billing or self-pay are encouraged to do so. Throughout the years, Wellspring has increased the number of employees and invested in an electronic medical record system with greater capacity for growth in clinical volume. Starting the 2020 year and in response to the COVID pandemic, Wellspring provided services via telehealth exclusively to maintain safety for employees and clients. This shift in service provision expanded Wellspring's capacity to serve clients all over the state of Florida throughout 2021. Mental health issues and travel restrictions during the pandemic prompted several states to drop licensing restrictions for therapists, so Wellspring provided services to clients in other states. As well, Wellspring registration in the state of Georgia enable Wellspring to accommodate Florida clinicians who relocated and provided telehealth services to Florida clients.

Wellspring's educational and outreach efforts continued in the production of Wellspring on the Air, a podcast/local radio program that addresses mental health topics with a scientific and biblical worldview. The Wellspring Counseling App, available in the Apple Store and Google Play, was added as a tool to provide easy and free access to educational content. As well, an online Wellspring Store was launched to provide another accessible place to provide digital free mental health education content.
